VOL. LXIII. NO. 28. REDWOOD CITY, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1922 ESTABLISHED 1859

SPECIAL PRIZE OF TEN DOLLARS TO BE GIVEN AS BONUS

Miss Quinlan in the Lead This Week. A Great Number of Contestants Running Close.

Is it possible? People all over the county are asking the question. Is it possible that the paper in a town the size of Redwood City is giving two trips to Honolulu with expenses paid?

Well, it certainly is, and the Times-Gazette is giving not only two to Honolulu but is giving a trip to the Grand Canyon and two trips to Los Angeles. This means not only the transportation but an allowance for room, board and other expenses of the trips.

Owing to the illness of two of the club members we have been asked to extend the closing date of the campaign and so have decided to do so and make the last day October 25 instead of October 19, as at first announced. This makes but five more working days and is positively the last extension under any circumstances.

Special Prize

The club member who turns in the most points between Monday, October 9, and Wednesday, October 18, at 6 o'clock, will receive a special prize of $10 in cash. This will not include any subscriptions excepting those turned in during the above mentioned time. And no points already secured will count on this offer. But all points secured on the $10 will count also on other prizes, so if you do not win this prize you will still have just so many more points to your credit. So work hard while you have a double incentive.

Extra Points

Next week al lwho turn in $25 in subscriptions will receive 50,000 extra points an dall who turn in $50 will be given 200,000 extra points. Every club member who expects to win a prize should do their best to get at least $25 in subscriptions next week. These extra points will also count on the $10 cash prize.

Miss Marion Quinlan of Halfmoon Bay is leading the list of club members today, with Miss Loretta Williams of Redwood City a close second and Miss Pearl George third. Miss Nunn is fourth and Mrs. Cook is fifth.

Those who have made a big gain this week are Miss Broggi of Menlo Park, Miss Ginola of Pescadero, Miss Modena of San Gregorio, Miss Boo sof Portola, Miss Perry of Redwood City, Miss Walsh of Menlo Park, Mrs. J. L. Ross of Woodside and Mrs. Wentworth and Miss Shelley of Redwood City.

A great number of the members are so close together that one subscription would change the entire standing. But it does not matter so much how you stand at present as it will later, so it is a good idea to begin a reserve force this week. You may turn in your subscriptions and get a point ballot and reserve it until the close of the campaign, when they must all be returned to be voted.

Will Johnson of Belmont has joined the club for the purpose of winning the business college scholarship at Heald's in San Francisco. Will is well known and was planning to attend business college when he learned of the opportunity offered by the Times-Gazette, so joined the club and his friends are already predicting success for him.

All those who have been nominated but who are depending upon their friends only will be dropped from the list October 20. This is only fair to the club members who are working, as many people are holding their subscriptions who would give them to the workers were the other names out, but who do not feel free to subscribe as long as their friends' names remain in the list.

If you wish to win one of the fine prizes you must start to work by October 20, as after that time it will be too late.

The revised list follows:

S. P. EXTENDS TIME OF EXCURSION RATES

E. Shillingsburgh, D. F. & P. A., Southern Pacific Company, San Jose, announces that the Southern Pacific will continue the sale of round trip tickets during October and November between points in California to which round trip tickets have been sold during the summer with the exception of resort places in the Shasta and Sierra regions, where the principal resorts are closed.

These rates will be a little higher than those in effect during the summer, but will be a material reduction on the double one way rate.

Tickets will be on sale during October and November with a final return limit December 31. This is altogether a new departure, as heretofore there have been no excursion tickets between points in California except during summer months.

SEEKS JUDGMENT IN NEUMAN ESTATE

Suit for collection of unpaid balances alleged to be due on promissory notes given by the late A. A. Neuman to the late Arthur E. Neuman was begun in the superior court Monday by Mrs. Marie S. Neuman, executrix of the estate of Arthur Neuman. Mrs. Clara C. Neuman, as executrix of the estate of A. A. Neuman, is named defendant in the action. Four promissory notes amounting to more than $27,000, secured by mortgages on a tract of land in the vicinity of Woodside, were delivered to Arthur E. Neuman by his brother in July, 1914, the complaint alleges. With the exception of the payment of one note amounting to $2,000, more than $30,000 has become due as interest and principal on the remaining notes, it is alleged. The petition asks for judgment for the amount, to be provided by a court sale of the lands named in the mortgage.

SCHOOL MONEY APPORTIONED

The first apportionment of state school funds was made this week on a basis of $700 per statutory teacher. Schools in this neighborhood were assigned the following amounts:

Belmont	$ 1,400
San Carlos	1,400
Redwood City	16,100
Las Lomitas	1,400
Menlo Park	3,500
Runnymede	2,800
Woodside	1,400
Portola	700

The amount apportioned to each high school in the county was $2200. Pescadero and Jefferson high schools received no state apportionments, as they were not operating as educational institutions last year.

SUPERVISORS DISCUSS HIGHWAY DISTRICT

When asked by Supervisor Brown what was being done about the east side highway, Supervisor MacBain said that he, together with County Surveyor Kneese and Assistant City Engineer Healy of San Francisco, had practically decided upon the route for the proposed road, but that until he could say definitely where the road and bridge would be, he would be unwilling to form a highway district. Supervisor MacBain said that when a district was formed that San Francisco would have two votes to one of San Mateo county. District Atorney Swart here informed the board that nothing could be done until both the board of supervisors of San Mateo and San Francisco had voted favorably. And Swart further stated that the county could not legally expend money for a survey until a highway district had been organized. In reply to MacBain's statement that after the district was formed that San Francisco could run the highway anywhere she liked, the district attorney said that the other two members of the commission were willing to put down in writing where the proposed highway should go. This, said Swart, could be done before the end of the day. Supervisor MacBain agreed to this, saying that if this were done he would be willing to go ahead with plans for the highway district.

Auditor Shields appeared before the board and asked when the increase of salary of the secretaries of the social service commission was to begin. The board decided this should begin on the first of this month.

Auditor Shields reported having received the county's apportionment of the motor vehicle license, amounting to $20,617, and also the county's share of fines for violation of the state motor vehicle act to the sum of $2,001. These amounts were distributed among the townships' road funds.

A telegram from A. B. Fletcher, California state highway commissioner, was received, stating that the commission had an opportunity to obtain a number of government trucks at a very low rate and that if the supervisors saw fit he would make arrangements to procure some. The board decided to take five, one for each township.

City Engineer Dimmitt appeared before the board with a map of a new subdivision just south of Redwood City called Barney Park. This map was accepted by the board.

SAN CARLOS IDEAL PLACE FOR COUNTRY HOMES

Among his old files Asa Hull of this place ran across the original map and poster advertising the beauties of the San Carlos townsite, which was gotten out in 1889. And it is interesting to quote a part of what the promoters had to say about San Carlos at that time and note that they were as adept in the use of adjectives and superlatives in their descriptions as are the real estate promoters of today: "San Carlos is a newly located town on the Southern Pacific Company's line to San Jose, Santa Cruz, Monterey, Santa Barbara, etc., and is about halfway between Belmont and Redwood City. It is only 26 miles from the city of San Francisco and just within the climatic zone which constitutes the compromise between the hot climate of the Salinas valley and the cooler climate of San Francisco peninsula. It is therefore the nearest point to the city of San Francisco which is under sunny skies and is free from fogs and rough winds. It is six miles nearer to San Francisco than Menlo Park, thus saving 12 miles a day railroad travel to suburban residents. It is favored with the same genial climate that has brought Menlo Park into prominence as a desirable place for suburban homes and is contiguous to the most elegant and palatial residences to be found in the United States. The town site of this new suburb of San Francisco has been divided into 300 villa lots of extraordinary size, 100x155 feet, which lie on a gentle slope at the head of the far famed Santa Clara valley. These lots command a fine view of the surrounding mountains, the bay to the eastward and the valley lying below. They are sheltered from the west winds by a picturesque mountain range, opening toward the eastward, a scene of most exalted loveliness, embracing every attractive feature of landscape. It is a warm and sheltered spot. The soil is rich and sandy, particularly adapted to fruits and flowers. The railroad depot now completed at a cost of $10,00 is constructed of stone from the Goodrich quarry near Alfnaden. Its architectural design is antique Queen Anne. It is the most beautiful, durable and complete depot on the whole line and many of its appointments are far superior to any structure of the kind west of the Rocky Mountains. San Carlos will be protected from all undesirable classes of population by excluding forever the sale of intoxicating liquors. San Carlos, in respect of time, will be nearer to San Francisco than is Oakland. Its location is only two miles from Redwood City, the county seat of San Mateo county, where several of the very best schools of the state are located, and only one mile from Reid's school near Belmont. Its educational advantages are therefore immediate, while the prospective opening of the Leland Stanford, Jr., University will place it within ten minutes of the greatest polytechnic school that has yet been founded on the continent. It is the intention to make this the handsomest and most attractive place for country homes in the state."

The conditions of today in this little Garden of Eden so well bear out the delightful picture drawn by the pioneers of over 30 years ago.

The Redwood City fire demartment was called out at 10 o'clock on Wednesday night by an alarm from box 13. The fire was in the Ace Vulcanizing Works, which is housed in part of the Germania Hall building. The agency for a well known automobile is in the same place and the good work of Night Officer Joe Roza in entering the building and taking out two machines saved that much property for the owners. The quick response of the firemen resulted in a saving of the property, as the building is an old one and the flames had attained a good headway when the fire was discovered. The fire started at the base of the tire retreading machine and quite a blaze was in progress when the light and smoke attracted attention of passers by. The damages were very light, as only a portion of the floor was burned away.

Mrs. William Chubbuck has as a visitor her sister, Mrs. Woods of New York, who has not been in Redwood City for eight years. Mrs. M. Walcome, another sister, has just come from King City and is also visiting at the Chubbuck home on Elwood street.

MT. CARMEL FESTIVAL TONIGHT

The annual festival and bazaar for the benefit of Mt. Carmel church and school opened Thursday night in Masonic Hall with a record breaking first night attendance. A large supply of attractive articles for sale at each booth has been secured by the ladies in charge. Comforters, blankets, household utensils, clothing—particularly aprons and children's dresses—are to be found in great variety.

Mrs. John Kearse's pioneer booth has for disposal, among other valuable articles, a silk comforter, the gift of Marcus' Arcade, and a monumental fruit cake the gift of the Peninsula Baking Company.

The convent booth, directed by the Misses Lorraine Dickey, Anna Sarsfield and Charlotte Bullivant, has on exhibition the wonderful doll, "Carmelita," presented by Mrs. John A. Boyd of San Carlos. A sack of sugar donated by George E. Stafford and Percy Long and a pair of heavy white woolen blankets given by Mrs. E. F. Fitzpatrick are also to be found at this table.

The grab bag and fancy goods booth directed by Mrs. D. E. Graham and Mrs. M. D. Clar, provides for the needs of the children—large and small. A six-room doll house, furnished to the taste of the most exacting and presented by little Miss Beatrice Shaw, is to be found at this table.

TEACHER BREAKS HER LEG

Miss Katharine Baumgarten, who has been teaching in the Pigeon Point School, south of Pescadero, met with a severe accident last Thursday which resulted in breaking of her leg between the knee and ankle. Miss Baumgarten had received word that her mother was very ill in the old home in Texas and had asked that she be allowed to resign. The trustees secured another teacher, Miss Vera Jacobs, and Miss Baumgarten remained over another day to help her successor. On the afternoon of the second day the two young ladies went for a ride with Mr. Humphries, who resides near the school. While riding up the White House Canyon the buggy hit a stump and was overturned. Miss Baumgarten struck the stump and the break was so bad that the bone protruded and it was necessary for Dr. C. V. Thompson, who attended her, to have a trained nurse to attend her. Miss Jacobs, the new teacher, was not injured. It will be some time before the young lady can go to Texas.

POSTOFFICE AT BELLVALE CLOSED AFTER 20 YEARS

Mrs. James Bell has closed the postoffice at Bellvale, which has been maintained for over 20 years. She has returned her commission to the postmaster general. Mrs. Bell has tried for some time to shift her responsibilities as postmistress to some other shoulders, but was not successful. She therefore decided to ask that the service be discontinued. The request was granted. The postoffice at Bellvale was a little rustic affair that stood by the roadside and it has often been referred to as the smallest postoffice in America. Mrs. Bell has leased her hotel to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sears of San Francisco and she will make her home in Redwood City with her brother, Henry McGarvey, at his home on El Camino Real.

CHRIS COLUMBUS TO DISCOVER PACIFIC CITY

With rehearsals under way for "The Landing of Columbus," the the spectacular pageant to be presented in connection with the Columbus Day celebration at Pacific City on Sunday, October 8, plans for the outdoor event to be staged by the Knights of Columbus are practically completed.

Every effort is being made to make the discovery scene the greatest outloor event ever held in this section of California. No expense has been spared in constructing replicas of the San Maria, Nina and Pinta. This work has been placed in the hands of Edice de Recat, who has come here from Chicago to stage outdoor events.

Every detatil in connection with the constructon of the ships has been worked out from original designs. Horace W. Amphlett, who has been directing the rehearsals, has followed the plot submitted by Martin V. Merle in making the landing scene truly realistic.

Hundreds of members of the Improved Order of Red Men will be seen in costumes in the forest scene, that organization having volunteered their services to the Knights of Columbus to secure the success of the pageant. Altogether 1,000 actors will be present when the Santa Maria arrives at the peninsula resort.

Members of San Mateo Council, Knights of Columbus, have visited many of the councils around the bay in a body extending an official invitation to attend the celebration. In their visits to Califoria councils No. 880 and San Francisco Council No. 615 the visiting knights appeared in costumes.

BENTON BYRD GETS TALK WITH CHINA'S PRESIDENT

We are in receipt of the New York Herald of September 10, containing an interesting article about a former Redwood City man. The gentleman mentioned is Benton C. Byrd, formerly in business here, whose mother, Mrs. Byrd, lives in the family home on Roosevelt avenue, this city.

The article in question is written by Dr. William Carter, D. D., of New York, and recounts an interview he had with Hon Sun Yat Sen, president of the South China Republic, who is now having some difficulties in holding his position, but who seems to be the strong man of China.

Dr. Carter experienced considerable difficulty in securing an interview with Sun Yat Sen, and had about decided that he would have to invoke all of the power of the press in the United States when he met an influential officer of the army, A. J. Croft. Mr. Croft told Dr. Carter that it would be impossible to get the interview.

Then Croft's friend, Benton C. Byrd, spoke up and said:

"But see here, we are all New Yorkers. We can't let Dr. Carter down this way."

"I just let them have it out when finally Croft said, 'Why go ahead, Byrd. You've done more for Dr. Sun than any other foeignen here. He'll listen to you even more quickly than he would to me. Go on and take Dr. Carter out yourself."

"And so it was arranged. Of course we didn't know if we could get past the guards. Of course we didn't know if Dr. Sun would see me if we did."

There is a great deal more to this description, but suffice it to say that Mr. Byrd took his launch, a trusted servant and an interpreter and went out into the harbor. They went past the line of batleships and finally came to the line in front of the boat on which the president had sought refuge. They were stopped. The interpreter did his work and soon the word came back that they could go onto the boat with Dr. Sun. Dr. Sun received the mcourteously and gave the first interview that he had given to any foreigners and he let it be known that he was doing it on acount of Mr. Byrd.

LOCAL MAN CALLED BY DEATH

James Denny, a respected citizen of Redwood City, passed away at his home at 122 Arch street yesterday morning. Mr. Denny has been inspector of the National Steamship Company of San Francisco for many years and his many friends both here and in San Francisco will be grieved by his loss.

Mr. Denny is survived by a his widow, Mary Denny, and one sister, Mrs. H. L. Matthews of Oakland, and one brother, Jeremiah Denny of Bridgeport, Conn. The funeral will be from Mt. Carmel Catholic church Monday morning at 9:30, interment to be at Holy Cross cemetery.

NEW SCHOOL TRUSTEE

County Superintendent of Schools Roy W. Cloud has appointed George Steinberg a trustee of the La Honda school district to take the place of Mrs. Percy R. Weeks, who moved to Woodside last month.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Moning work and worship begin at 10 o'clock—interesting Bible exposition. Evangelistic service in the evening beginning at 7:30. The subject of address will be "The place of prayer in God's program for the church." The disciples of the Lord today may well offer up the same petition the early disciples did: "Lord, teach us to pray." You are invited.

LOCAL EPISCOPAL MINISTER TELLS NEEDS OF REDWOOD CITY

"Come, Let Us Build Us A City and Make Us A Name," Says Rev. Molony.

Rev. E. H. Molony, pastor of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, observed Civic Sunday last week and delivered a splendid sermon before the members of the local chamber of commerce. Mr. Molony said in part:

The story from which the text is taken is one of the gems of ancient folklore and tradition in the childhood of humanity. Men would build a city so fortified and a town so great and high that no enemy, no natural element could assail or disturb them, and they would have the name of the greatest people on earth. As in the story of Eden, God is conceived as a magnified man "and the Lord came down to see the city and tower which the chilIren of men builded."

Childlike in ancient days, childish today, yet even today we have illustrations of that attude on the part of men. The "Me and God" idea is not confined to an European state; and literalists to this hour think one is attacking inspired truth when development of the idea of God is recognized in its ancient lore.

The truth within this shell of primitive setting is identical with that of the psalmist of later day, "Unless the Lord build the house their labor is but vain that build it; unless the Lord keep the city the watchman waketh but in vain."

The message I would give to the members of the chamber of commerce is that if we would build cities and citizenship that will endure we can not leave God out, nor are material gifts to the church the equivalent of religion and public worship.

Said General Leonard Wood at the San Francisco auditorium: "A nation that forgot God and did not go to church is a decadent nation and the history of fallen nations proves it."

Nor is it the first time that a great general confessed his faith in God. General George Washington, Admiral Dewey, General Pershing witness the same confession—McKinley and Roosevelt too—nor do these men claim peculiar saintliness or think that public worship stamps one with the sanctimonious superiority of negative protestantism. Belief in God; the worship of God; religion is not a matter of indiference to our men of affairs, to our captains of industry, to our builders of cities, to our chambers of commerce.

Our higher aspirations, our nobler impulses are our greatest intelligence—and it is not manly to dodge the issue. It is common to blame the church or the clergy or long sermons or long services. It has become a mark of negative protestantism to ignore any recognition of authority in the church to state your duty in this matter. The common accompaniment or corollary of thi sattitude is that there is no personal loss in the neglect of public worship. The fact is too familiar that public worship is widely neglected today. Perhaps it is not so well knbwn that 66,000,000 of the 110,000,000, more than half the population of the United States, have no church affiliation, no church connection whatever—and half of those whose names are on church records are negligent and lukewarm. It is a serious condition of things for this country, for a nation that has forgot God and does not go to church is decadent—the history of fallen nations proves it.

I will not say the church—for, as St. Paul says, the church is the Body of Christ, but the churches are blameworthy. In the book of Revelation, 2d and 3d chapters, we find the inspired diagnosis of the church fallible. Without doubt the words of Jesus apply to his kingdom on earth, "A kingdom divided against itself cannot stand," and the clergy must share the blame—and long sermons (a good sermon is seldom long) weak, unprepared sermons are an additional cause.

There is truth in this—and prolonged services are a burden. Much of this criticism is justified—but I think most of it is superficial—does not touch the real fault on the part of the churches. I believe the great fault is that Jesus, the son of man, is not "lifted up." Arrogance and sectarianism have divided the kingdom against itself—and zeal to build up large audiences, campaigns, drives for numerical membership, have taken the place of teaching Christ and extending his kingdom.

There is no church in this Christian land but must feel remorse that more than half our population is unchurched—non-Christian. But this is but half the cause—the other half belongs to the laity—and in this, my brethren, the cap fits you. If the prophets have prophesied falsely—you, the people, loved to have it so—and so the altar of the Lord has fallen down and the altar of Baal is erected: the competitive system has swollen like a flood, competition of man against man—of class against class—of church against church—of Sunday school against Sunday school—of interest against interest—yea, of city against city. This is the root of the evil and competition must be changed to co-operation and pagan greed for gain to the Christian creed of love.

"Go to, let us build us a city and let us make a name." Let us change it to "Come to." Let us come to ourselves. We are in the "far country" seeking to satisfy our hunger on the husks. Come to ourselves. Come to yourself. Your true self is manly. Recognize the need of the hour, the courage of men—then go to it, quit you like the men you really are and build: build citizenship and a city worthy of real American Christian citizenship—build with your eyes open. There are modern Sanballets who are envious, petty, jealous. Too narrow and warped to recognize any city but their own, so jealous lest others progress that they hinder their own development. The pettiness to which material wealth and "efficiency" can stoop was the demoralizing demonstration of the "great" war and the type is found at home. But build! Build with your eyes open for these wolves in sheep's clothing, enemies at the gate; build on solid foundations; build if needs must, with one hand holding a spear while with the other we build the wall.

Renew your allegiance to God. Look to the Teacher to come from God. Behold the Man! Tell the truth, stand for development and "launch out into the deep." Religion is not dogmas of the past. Religion is life, now. Venture, in faith and confidence — better make mistakes than not to try. Believe in your project, in your city, and make a name that will attract the type of people whom you desire as fellow citizens of your sons and daughters in the days to come.

The electrical storm was the first reported at this time of year in six years, according to the United States weather bureau in San Francisco. It was also reported as the most severe in the late autumn since 1896.

LOCAL YOUTH BRINGS HOME PROSPECTIVE BRIDE

Oscar Olson, well known graduate of Sequoia Union High School, who is attending the University of California, was a visitor in town last Thursday. Oscar was accompanied by his fiancee, Miss Lucile Rudolph, who is also a student at U. C. and the daughter of a well to do merchant at Lompoc. Oscar seems a bit bashful, but is receiving the congratulations of his friends with his usual smiling elegance.

ORATORIO ATTRACTS MUSIC LOVERS TO SAN MATEO

With a natural stage setting between two majestic oaks, backed by feathery cedars, the oratorio of "Elijah" was rendered by the Peninsula Choral Society in a manner well becoming that masterpiece of musical art. The introduction was sung by Mr. Perry, whose solo parts throughout the entire performance were sung with a finish and feeling well suited to the sacred character of the oratorio. Mrs. Allen and Miss Pieper sang the contralto and soprano solos, and as both ladies are possessed of clear, sweet voices, the parts were received with pleasure by all who heard them. Mr. Belotti, the baritone soloist, held the audience in rapt silence during his rendering of the sacred airs.

The chorus work was excellent and much credit is due Festyn Davies for his capable leadership. The oratorio was enjoyed by all who heard it and we all hope with Mr. Davies that another treat may be given the music lovers of the vicinity next spring.

KERRIGAN'S CANDIDACY

Judge Frank H. Kerrigan of the district court of appeal, who is seeking one of the two long term places on the state supreme bench, has issued an appeal to the voters of California for their support at the general election on November 7.

The flattering vote received by Judge Kerrigan at the recent primary election has encouraged himself and his friends in the belief that with a concerted effort he will be assured success at the coming general election in November.

Judge Kerrigan has been on the bench for the past 28 years, the last 16 of which he has served as associate justice of the district court of appeal.

With the opening of general campaign headquarters in San Francisco and Los Angeles an active and aggressive campaign will be begun to further the candidacy of one of the state's most brilliant jurists.

A COURAGEOUS PRESIDENT

In his action with regard to the bonus legislation President Harding revealed himself to the American people as a man of courage and as a chief executive who puts sacred duty ahead of personal, political consideration.

In returning the bonus measure to congress without his approval, and in opposition to the tremendous pressure of his own party, President Harding had consideration for the common sense of the situation, with the government staggering as it is under its enormous burden of debt.

The president's objections to the measure as set forth in his message are so sound and so clear and so convincing that they will have the indorsement of all thinking America. There is no escape for the unbiased and unprejudiced mind from complete concurrence in the logic, the truth and the force of the president's unanswerable argument.

For courage, for deep sense of duty, for splendid guardianship of the sacred trust he assumed as president of the United States there has been nothing finer in any act of any chief executive since the founding of the government.

Whatever the cost to Mr. Harding's political future doesn't matter, since it is a bigger thing and a better thing for the president of the United States to be right, to be honest with the job he holds, to be honest with the people who gave him his great trust than to be returned for a second term to that great trust.

But the truth is that the man who disregards selfish considerations for conscientious public service strengthens himself with the people. It is the coward who cringes to political clamor, not the strong man, and Mr. Harding now stands out before the American people and the world as a man who has the strength and the force of character to make good in a supreme test between selfishness and duty.

SOME IMPRESSIONS

There should be a movement started by the merchants of this city to have a sidewalk placed along the Woodside road from the Washington school to the city limits. We know that the territory mentioned is not within the corporate limits of the town. But the people who live in that section spend practically every thing they make here in Redwood City. It isn't safe for children going to school and it isnt' safe for pedestrins coming to or going from town, to walk on the paved roadway of the Woodside road. The very nature of the road impels one to drive fast and people walking along must be on the watch constantly. This is a proposition that should have action. We can't afford to have our people killed on the Woodside road.

Once again we rise up to remark about the parking lines which the street department of the city has marked out for auto owners. We have tried to back into the required parking space and the effort caused us to say words that are not fit for publication. The allotted space is 16 feet. It should be 20 feet. There are some drivers who can back into a hole the length of their cars, but they are few and far between. We would move and second the motion that parking spaces be lengthened.

The people of San Mateo county are real loyal to their own. Hon. Charles A. Shurtleff was the only candidate for state office who lives in San Mateo county.

STATEMENT TO THE PUBLIC

I am being criticised, I understand, as a member of the board of trustees of the Sequoia Union High School District, for the slow progress being made toward the construction of our new high school building, and in justice to myself I desire to give the public the facts.

About one year ago tentative sketches for a new high school building were submitted to the board for examination. When the board met for selection therefrom and for the employment or an architect, the minority of the board, which included Superintendent Cloud, Principal Argo and myself, were in favor of the employment of Mr. Weeks as architect, but we were overruled by the board, who voted in favor of employing Messrs. Werner and Coffey as architects. Thereupon Werner & Coffey, being so employed, were directed to draw and prepare plans and specifications for a building to cost $300,000 and to have the same completed and in the hands of the board by January 1, 1922, so that bids could be advertised for and the building constructed and ready for occupation at the fall term of our school. Although I called many, many times at the architects' office urging action, it was not until June, however, that the plans and specifications were received from the architects, and thereupon bids were at once advertised for by the board, but to our astonishment the bids received were $100,000 higher than the cost called for of $300,000, and there was nothing for the board to do but reject all the bids. It was then deemed wise to have the plans and specifications revised by the architects, Werner & Coffey, so as to have the cost within the means of the district, and completed by September 15, 1922, so that new bids could be advertised for, but though repeatedly called for no new or revised plans have as yet been submitted to the board.

Another criticism has been made and to the effect that the bond money is lying idle in the Redwood City banks; this has been assigned as a probable reason for procrastination, but to the contrary, the money has always been, and is, on deposit in San Francisco banks and is drawing interest for the benefit of the district.

This is not intended to find fault with anyone, but since I seem to be the one most criticized, I wish the public to know the facts, and they are as above stated.

In conclusion, I feel confident, had the choice of the minority for architect been adopted by the board we should now be looking forward to occupying our new building in January next, when in fact we are not now ready to even ask for bids for a building.

Respectfully,
L. P. BEHRENS.

Pit Power Plant No. 1 with capacity of 93,000 horsepower, just completed at a cost of $6,500,000.

How this Company is meeting the Demand for Power

Mr. Wise, the rancher, keeps no more horses than he needs. He knows that too many horses are an expense. So, he keeps enough teams to do his work, with an extra horse or two for emergencies.

The Pacific Gas and Electric Company is keeping in step with the demand for power in much the same common sense manner.

To develop power too greatly in excess of the demand would be like keeping too many idle horses in the stable.

On the other hand, this Company is vested with a great responsibility. It must not only supply existing demands for power, but also develop a sufficient surplus to care for emergencies. At the same time, power development must be kept far enough in advance of present requirements to encourage the upbuilding of this section in other directions.

Owing to the completion of the Pit Power Plant No. 1, with its 93,000 horsepower capacity, and because of other contributing factors, the P G and E is today equipped to serve "Superior" California with much more power than is being used at the present time.

The Company will continue to develop the Pit River Project to the end that 600,000 horsepower will eventually be generated in that one district alone. But in the meanwhile more people, more manufactories, more developments of all kinds must be attracted to make practical use of power.

Frank C. Jordan, Secretary of State.

CHAPTER 733, STATUTES OF 1921

An act to authorize the creation of a debt or debts, liability or liabilities, throught the issuance and sale of state bonds, for the single object of creating a fund to carry out the provisions of the land settlement act, approved June 1, 1917, and of any and all acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto; to provide ways and means, exclusive of loans, for the payment of the interest of such debt or debts, liability or liabilities, as such interest falls due, and also for the payment and discharge of the principal of such debt or debts, liability or liabilities, as such principal matures; to create a state land settlement finance committee, the members of which are to serve without compensation; to define the powers and duties of said state land settlement finance committee and of other state officers in relation to this act; to appropriate money for the expense of preparing and of advertising the sale of the bonds herein authorized to be issued; and to provide for the submission of this act to a vote of the people at the general election to be holden in the month of November, 1922.

(Approved June 3, 1921.)

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. For the purpose of creating a fund to carry out the provisions of the land settlement act, approved June 1, 1917, and of any and all acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, the object of which acts is to provide employment and rural homes for soldiers, sailors, marines and others who have served with the armed forces of the United States in the European war or other wars of the United States, including former American citizens who served in allied armies against the central powers and have been repatriated, and who have been honorably discharged, to promote closer agricultural settlement, to assist deserving and qualified persons to acquire small improved farms, to demonstrate the value of adequate capital and organized direction in subdividing and preparing agricultural land for settlement, and to provide homes for farm laborers, in accordance with the provisions of the land settlement act, approved June 1, 1917, and of any and all acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, provided, that the said land settlement board must pay over to the general fund of the state from the proceeds of the sale of bonds all money which has been heretofore or may be hereafter appropriated and advanced out of the general fund of the state treasury for the use of the state land settlement board on condition that it shall be so paid over; provided, further, that the said state land settlement board may, out of the proceeds from the sale of said bonds, pay all or any part of any indebtedness heretofore by it incurred in accordance with law and remaining unpaid, including the interest accrued thereon, unless the rate of interest applying to such indebtedness is less than the rate of interest applying to the said bonds; and provided further, that the proceeds from the sale of said bonds may be used to pay the debt created by the issuance and sale thereof.

Sec. 2. After the issuance of the proclamation of the governor provided for in section sixteen of this act, and immediately after adoption of any resolution by the state land settlement finance committee pre-created, provided for in section eleven of this act, the state treasurer shall prepare the requisite number of suitable bonds of the denomination of one thousand dollars in accordance with the specifications contained in such resolution. The aggregate par value of all bonds issued under this act shall not exceed the sum of three million dollars and the bonds issued under any such resolution shall bear interest from the date of issuance of said bonds to the date of maturity thereof, at a rate to be determined by the said state land settlement finance committee and specified in such resolution, but in no case exceeding six per cent per annum. Both principal and interest shall be payable in gold coin of the United States, of the present standard of value, at the office of the state treasurer or at the office of any duly autohrized agent of the state treasurer, and shall be so payable at the times specified in said resolution or resolutions.

All bonds issued under this act shall bear the signature of the governor and the facsimile countersignature of the controller and shall be endorsed by the state treasurer either by original signature or by signature stamp adopted for each particular bond issue under this act, and the said bonds shall be signed, countersigned and endorsed by the officers who shall be in office on the date of issuance thereof, and each of said bonds shall bear an impress of the great seal of the State of California. The said bonds so signed, countersigned, endorsed and sealed, when sold, shall be and constitute a valid and binding obligation upon the State of California, although the said thereof be made at a date or dates upon which the officers having signed, countersigned and endorsed said bonds, or any or either of said officers, shall have ceased to be the incumbents of the offices held by them at the time of signing, countersigning, or endorsing said bonds. Each bond issued under this act shall contain a clause or clauses stating that the said bonds cease to accrue thereon from and after the date of maturity thereof, and referring to this act and to the resolution of the state land settlement finance board hereunder by virtue of which said bond is issued.

Sec. 3. The requisite number of suitable interest coupons, appropriately numbered, shall be attached to each bond issued under this act. Said interest coupons shall bear the facsimile signature of the state treasurer who shall be in office on the date of issuance of the bond to which said coupons pertain.

Sec. 4. All bonds issued under this act and sold shall be deemed to have been called in at their respective dates of maturity and the state treasurer shall, on the respective dates of maturity of said bonds, or as soon thereafter as said matured bonds are surrendered to him, pay the same out of the proceeds of the controller's warrants drawn in his favor as provided in section five hereof and perforate the bonds so paid with a suitable device in a manner to indicate such payment and the date thereof. He shall also, on the said respective dates of maturity, cancel all bonds bearing said dates of maturity and remaining unsold, by perforation with a suitable device in a manner to indicate such cancellation and the date thereof. The provisions of this section shall be applicable also to the interest coupons pertaining to the bonds authorized by this act to be issued, and shall be applicable, as far as practicable, to any duly authorized agent of the state treasurer.

Sec. 5. There is hereby appropriated from the general fund in the state treasury such sum annually as will be necessary to pay the principal of and the interest on the bonds issued and sold pursuant to the provisions of this act, as said principal and interest becomes due and payable.

There shall be collected annually in the same manner and at the same time as other state revenue is collected such a sum, in addition to the ordinary revenues of the state, as shall be required to pay the principal and interest on said bonds as herein provided, and it is hereby made the duty of all officers charged by law with any duty in regard to the collections of said revenue, to do and perform each and every act which shall be necessary to collect such additional sum.

On the several dates of maturity of said principal and interest in each fiscal year, there shall be returned into the general fund in the state treasury all of the moneys subject to and available for the use of the state land settlement board not in excess of the principal of and interest on the bonds, then due and payable and, in the event of such moneys so returned on said dates of maturity being less than the said principal and interest then due and payable, then the balance remaining unpaid shall be returned into the general fund in the state treasury as soon thereafter as it shall become available, together with interest thereon, from such dates of maturity until so returned, at the rate of five per cent per annum, compounded semiannually.

Both principal and interest of said bonds shall be paid when due upon warrants duly drawn by the controller of the state in favor of the state treasurer or in favor of any duly authorized agent of the state treasurer, upon demands audited by the state board of control, and the moneys to be returned into the general fund in the state treasury pursuant to the provisions of this section shall likewise be paid as herein provided upon warrants duly drawn by the controller of the state upon demands duly audited by the state board of control.

Sec. 6. The sum of ten thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses that may be incurred by the state treasurer in having said bonds prepared and advertising their sale. Said amount shall be refunded to the general fund of the state treasury out of the land settlement fund in accordance with the provisions of this act on controller's warrant duly drawn for that purpose.

Sec. 7. When the bonds authorized to be issued under this act shall be duly executed, they shall be by the state treasurer sold at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in such parcels and numbers as the said treasurer shall be directed by the governor of the state, under seal thereof, after a resolution requesting such sale shall have been adopted by the state land settlement board and approved by the governor of the state; but said treasurer must reject any and all bids for said bonds, or for any of them, which shall be below the par value of said bonds so offered plus the interest which has accured thereon between the date of sale and the last preceding interest maturity date; and with the approval of the governor, he may from time to time, by public announcement at the place and time fixed for the sale, continue such sale, as to the whole of the bonds offered, or any part thereof offered, to such time and place as he may select. Before offering any of said bonds for sale the said treasurer shall detach therefrom all coupons which have matured or will mature before the day fixed for such sale.

Sec. 8. Due notice of the time and place of sale of all bonds must be given by said treasurer by publication in one newspaper published in the city and county of San Francisco and also by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Oakland and by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Los Angeles and by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Sacramento once a week during four weeks prior to such sale. In addition to the notice last above provided for, the state treasurer may give such further notice as he may deem advisable, but the expense and cost of such additional notice shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars for each sale so advertised. The proceeds of the sale of such bonds and such amount as may have been paid as accrued interest thereon shall be forthwith paid over by said treasurer into the land settlement fund in the state treasury and must be used exclusively to provide employment and rural homes for soldiers, sailors, marines and others who have served with the armed forces of the United States in the European war or other wars of the United States, including former American citizens who served in allied armies against the central powers and have been repatriated, and who have been honorably discharged, to promote closer agricultural settlement, to assist deserving and qualified persons to acquire small improved farms, to demonstrate the value of adequate capital and organized direction in subdividing and preparing agricultural land for settlement, and to provide homes for farm laborers, in accordance with the provisions of the land settlement act, approved June 1, 1917, and of any and all acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, provided, that the said land settlement board must pay over to the general fund of the state from the proceeds of the sale of bonds all money which has been heretofore or may be hereafter appropriated and advanced out of the general fund of the state treasury for the use of the state land settlement board on condition that it shall be so paid over; provided, further, that the said state land settlement board may, out of the proceeds from the sale of said bonds, pay all or any part of any indebtedness heretofore by it incurred in accordance with law and remaining unpaid, including the interest accrued thereon, unless the rate of interest applying to such indebtedness is less than the rate of interest applying to the said bonds; and provided further, that the proceeds from the sale of said bonds may be used to pay the debt created by the issuance and sale thereof.

Sec. 9. The state land settlement board shall be and hereby is authorized with the approval of the state board of control, to invest any surplus moneys in any of the funds subject to or appropriated for its use in bonds of the United States, or of the State of California, or of the several counties or municipalities or other political subdivisions of the state of California and to sell such bonds, or any of them, at the governing market rates, upon approval of the state board of control.

Sec. 10. There is hereby created a state land settlement finance committee composed of the governor, state controller, state treasurer, chairman of the state board of control, and chairman of the state land settlement board, all of whom shall serve thereon without compensation and a majority of whom shall be empowered to act for said committee. The attorney-general of the state shall be the legal advisor of the state land settlement finance committee.

Upon request of the state land settlement board, supported by a statement of the plans and projects of the state land settlement board with respect thereto, the state land settlement finance committee shall determine whether or not a bond issue under this act is necessary or desirable to carry such plans and projects into execution.

Sec. 11. Whenever the said state land settlement finance committee shall have determined that a bond issue under this act is necessary or desirable to carry such plans and projects into execution, it shall adopt a resolution to that effect. The said resolution shall authorize and direct the state treasurer to prepare the requisite number of suitable bonds and shall specify:

1. The aggregate number, aggregate par value, and the date of issuance of the bonds to be issued.

2. The date or dates of maturity of the bonds to be issued and the number and numerical sequence of the bonds maturing at each date of maturity.

3. The annual rate of interest which the bonds to be issued shall bear.

4. The number, numerical sequence, amount of amounts, and the date of maturity of the interest coupons to be attached to the said bonds.

5. The technical form and language of the bonds to be issued and of the interest coupons to be attached thereto.

In determining the date or dates of maturity of the said bonds and the amount of bonds maturing at each date of maturity, the state land settlement finance committee shall be guided by the amounts and dates of maturity of the revenues estimated to accrue to the state land settlement board from the project or projects to be financed by each issue, and shall fix and determine said dates and amounts in such manner that, together with the dates and amounts of interest payments on the said bond issue, they shall coincide, as nearly as practicable, and be commensurate, as nearly as practicable, with the dates and amounts of such estimated revenues; provided, that the bonds first to mature in each issue, shall mature not later than five years from the date of issuance thereof; provided, further, that specific numbers of bonds of specified numerical sequence shall thereafter mature at annual intervals; and provided, further, that the bonds last to mature in each issue shall mature not later than forty-five years from the date of issuance thereof.

The rate of interest to be borne by the said bonds shall be uniform for all the bonds of the same issue and shall be determined and fixed by the state land settlement finance committee according to the then prevailing market conditions, but shall in no case exceed six per cent per annum, and the determination of said committee as to the rate of interest shall be conclusive as to the then prevailing market conditions. The interest coupons to be attached to the said bonds shall be payable at semiannual intervals, from the date of issuance of said bonds; provided, that the interest coupons first payable may, if the state land settlement finance committee shall so determine and specify, be payable one year after the date of issuance of said bonds.

Sec. 12. All actual and necessary expenses of the state land settlement finance committee and of the members thereof shall be paid out of the land settlement fund, upon approval of the state board of control and on controller's warrant duly drawn for that purpose, and shall constitute expenses of the state land settlement board.

Sec. 13. The state controller, the state treasurer, and the state land settlement finance committee shall keep full and particular account and record of all their proceedings under this act, and they shall transmit to the governor an abstract of all such proceedings thereunder, with an annual report to be by the governor laid before the legislature biennially; and all books and papers pertaining to the matter provided for in this act shall at all times be open to the inspection of any party interested, or the governor, or the attorney-general, or a committee of either branch of the legislature, or a joint committee of both, or any citizen of the state.

Sec. 14. This act, if adopted by the people, shall take effect on the fifteenth day of November, 1922, as to all its provisions except those relating to and necessary for its submission to the people, and for returning, canvassing, and proclaiming the votes, and as to said excepted provisions this act shall take effect immediately.

Sec. 15. This act shall be submitted to the people of the State of California for their ratification at the next general election, to be holden in the month of November, 1922, and all ballots at said election shall have printed thereon and in a square thereof, the words: "For the land settlement bond act of 1921," and in the same square under said words the following in brevier type: "This act provides for a bond issue of three million dollars to carry out the purposes of the land settlement act." In the square immediately below the square containing such words, there shall be printed on said ballot the words: "Against the land settlement bond act of 1921" and in the same square immediately below said words "Against the land settlement bond act of 1921" in brevier type shall be printed "This act provides for a bond issue of three million dollars to carry out the purposes of the land settlement act." Opposite the words "For the land settlement bond act of 1921" and "Against the land settlement bond act of 1921," there may place a cross in the manner required by law to indicate whether they vote for or against said act, and those voting for said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "For the land settlement bond act of 1921" and those voting against the said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "Against the land settlement bond act of 1921." The governor of this state shall include the submission of this act to the people, as aforesaid, in his proclamation calling for said general election.

Sec. 16. The votes cast for or against this act shall be counted, returned and canvassed and declared in the same manner and subject to the same rules as votes cast for state officers; and if it appear that said act shall have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at said election as aforesaid, then the same shall have effect as hereinbefore provided, and shall be irrepealable until the principal and interest of the liabilities herein created shall be paid and discharged, and the governor shall make proclamation thereof; but if a majority of the votes cast as aforesaid are against this act then the same shall be and become void.

Sec. 17. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state in accordance with law to have this act published in at least one newspaper in each county, or city and county, if one be published therein, throughout this state, for three months next preceding the general election to be holden in the month of November, 1922, the cost of publication shall be paid out of the general fund, on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose and shall be refunded to the general fund out of the land settlement fund in accordance with this act.

Sec. 18. This act may be known and cited as the "Land settlement bond act of 1921."

Sec. 19. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE PROPOSES FORMATION OF PLANNING COMMISSION

At the regular meeting of the trustees of Redwood City a letter was received from the chamber of commerce in which some very pertinent suggestions were made. The items which the chamber of commerce presented to the board for consideration were as follows:

1. An official city planning commission established by ordinance.
2. A comprehensive zoning ordinance establishing the best use of property, height of buildings and the area of lot to be covered in all parts of the city.
3. A comprehensive major traffic plan worked out with due relation to zoning and the minimum widen- and extension of street system.
4. An officially established park commission and a park and boulevard system.
5. A complete housing code in addition to the building code and zoning ordinance.
6. An official recreation commission with a plan for expansion of playgrounds and schools as needs develop.
7. Comprehensive plans for the most convenient and attractive location of future public buildings suggested by civic centers.
8. An art jury with power to veto and hold up plans and locations of all public buildings, statues or any works of art acquired by the city.

This communication was filed by the board and will be taken up at the next regular meeting, when R. H. K. Smith, secretary of the chamber of commerce, will be present and speak on the needs of the city for a more uniform system of arrangement.

L. P. Behrens presented a request to the board that the P. G. & E. be allowed to dig up and replace a leaking gas line on Harrison street. Escaping gas, he claimed, had killed several trees on his and neighboring places. This permission was granted by the board.

The ordinance concerning storing of gasoline was ordered changed by the board and S. H. Stith, who is erecting a service station on the highway at Broadway, was granted a permit to use a 500-gallon tank.

The question of the 3 o'clock dance permits was again agitated and it was the source of considerable argument. A letter from the Redwood City Commercial Club was received urging the board to grant permits for 3 o'clock dances when they thought it advisable to do so. The communication further stated that the young people, since the discontinuance of the 3 o'clock dances, had got into the way of going out of town Saturday night and not getting home until Sunday, which, it was said, was worse morally than the later hour of dancing. This communication was ordered filed, but the question was brought up again when a request for a dance permit mas received from the the fire department. This request read "to the usual hour," but several of the firemen were in favor of changing it to read "to 3 o'clock," but this was opposed by Chief Ryan and the matter of late dances was laid over for the time being. The permit for the firemen was granted.

The Commercial Club protested against the manner in which some of the merchants were being charged by the night watchman for the service of turning off lights at night. P. A. Ryan was present and said he had received a bill for $65 for this service and olaimed that the merchants were charged no uniform rate and were paying anywhere from nothing, in some cases, to $2.50 a month. Trustee McNulty expressed it as his opinion that this service should be a part of the officer's regular duties. This matter was referred to the chairman of the police commission for investigation.

J. W. Rutherdale, who has a contract to construct a house on Duane street, appeared before the board and asked that he be allowed to construct a portion of the foundation on the surface instead of digging down a foot as required by the building ordinance. Rutherdale pointed out that this was an exceptional case, as one side of the building was over an old, abandoned roadway, and to cut through this surface would cause him considerable expense and condition of Railroad avenue be stronger than a foundation would be. This petition was denied by the board on the ground that to allow him to set aside the ordinance would set a precedent that might cause trouble in the future.

Trustee Beeger spoke of the bad condition of Railroad avenue between Jefferson street and the station in winter. As this property belongs to the Southern Pacific Company the board instructed the clerk to write to that company and ask that they do something to improve the sidewalk.

Authority was given to Superintendent of Streets Dearborn to purchase a new tapping machine.

An application from Joseph Faso to operate a taxi business in Redwood City was reeeived and approved.

A letter from C. D. Sweet was received stating that he believed lower insurance rates could be obtained from the insurance underwriters if they were given sufficient data regarding fire prevention in Redwood City. This matter was referred to Engineer Dimmitt, Superintendent of Streets Dearborn and the fire department.

A communication was read by Chairman McNulty from the Golden Poppy Chapter of Disabled War Veterans for permission to make a drive for funds on November 4. McNulty said that he had previously had a communication from the state officials of the Disabled War Veterans asking him to appoint a committee to make a drive here and that he had done so. That there might be no duplication of effort he asked that Golden Poppy Chapter be advised of the action taken by the state officials.

The garbage question was again brought up and City Attorneys Mansfield was instructed to change the present ordinance so that the town could call for bids for garbage disposal.

PESCADERO CELEBRATES SECOND ANNIVERSARY

Pescadero turned out in great numbers to do honor to the second anniversary of its community center on Saturday night last. The program reported in last week's Times-Gazette was a noteworthy success from start to finish—or, if you will, from "movie to munching." Besides the picture provided by J. C. Williamson the talent presented by Mrs. Frank Williamson was received very enthusiastically by a large audience of some 300 people. Mrs. Robert Silva, Miss Marguerite Schroeder, Mrs. Vierra and Ed Weeks distinguished themselves in this respect after a special manner.

A great deal of interest was manifested in a review of the center's progress as presented by Carl J. Coburn. His address was as follows:

"I have been asked to give an outline of what has been done by our community service during the last year and I shall be as brief as possible.

"Every afternoon and evening the service house has been open and in charge of a house director, whose business it was to see that all who attended were made to feel at home and welcome. The attendance and interest taken have been very gratifying. The meetings of the executive board have been well attended and many plans for the benefit of the community in the future have been discussed and will soon be put into operation. The picture shows on Saturday nights, which, with the exception of the dues received from the members, is the only source of revenue we have, have been well attended and we wish to thank all who have attended and we hope we will receive the same support in the future. During the year we have had the services of Miss Randall, one of the national recreational directors, and her visit was a source of great benefit and pleasure to both young and old.

"On Sunday nights we have had a picture show for the benefit of the Pescadero fire department and we are glad to report that the profits of these shows have been nearly $400. In connection with this fire department work I will read a letter from Rolla V. Watt, one of the most experienced fire insurance managers on the Pocific coast, in which he says:

"'Indirectly we have received advices that your good town has installed an adequate water supply and also additional fire fighting apparatus, and in view of these facts we think it would be advisable to make application to the board of fire underwriters for lower rates on all buildings situate in your town, but before doing this we are going to call upon you for information regarding the exact improvements that have been made. Upon receipt of this information we shall submit the same to the board and we think that our joint efforts will bring fruit.'

"Another enterprise which the community service is standing behind is the new town paper, the Pescadero Pebble, and I want to say that there is hardly a week that I don't wish Mr Dunn, the publisher was a resident of Pescadero instead of Halfmoon Bay. Last week there were twenty of the subscribers who did not receive their papers and you can imagine the reception which was accorded me. The only explanation which Mr. Dunn has been able to give is that he was so excited over the oil boom in Halfmoon Bay that he forgot all about Pescadero. We are sorry that these errors have been made and we promise that Mr. Dunn will be more attentive to his business in the future. But we are thankful for the interest taken in the paper by the subscribers and their desire not to miss a single issue.

"The Red Cross, under the able leadership of Miss Boddy, has a first aid class in the community building on the first Wednesday of each month and the attendance and interest taken in this work is steadily on the increase.

"There is one more achievement which I wish to mention and that is our high school, and I am sure that if everyone had known the facts relative to the proposition as they existed when it was first voted on there would have been no opposition and the kindly words and support of those who opposed it the hardest which have been given to the trustees and teachers is more than gratifying. Stories were spread that the taxes would be increased $1 or more if we voted for the high school and that the attendance would be too small to have a successful school. Our taxes have been raised 61 cents, but even then we are paying a lower rate for our high school than any other high school district in the county. We are proud of the opening term of our school. The attendance on our opening day was larger than that of either Halfmoon Bay or the city of San Mateo when their high schools were first opened. We have talked with scholars and they assure us that they are more than pleased with their teachers and the manner in which the school is being conducted.

"I have mentioned only a few of the many things of betterment for the community for which the community service can take credit. We have had the co-operation of the whole community in these undertakings and without this co-operation we could not have succeeded. We are going to keep on the good work and plans will be laid for other enterprises of a substantial character.

"We want to thank the people of this community for the good work which has been rendered to help us and we want to have a continuance of this help. We want to receive suggestions from everyone and they will be gladly received. And above all the chairman wishes to thank each and every member of the community service for the unselfish and untiring work which has been given to bring this branch of the organization to its present second annual anniversary."

The following telegram was received from our district representative, Jerome B. Pendleton:

"Carl J. Coburn, chairman Community Service, Pescadero, Cal.—Greetings and good wishes to Pescadero Community Service on the occasion of second anniversary celebration and may your organization continue its good work uninterruptedly. Congratulations also to executive board for fine record in attendance and interest. Greatly regret that I cannot attend celebration personally."

Just a word about the "men's" commissary committee who prepared and served the supper. If the amount of food furnished and consumed and the number of nice things said about the "service" represent a just criterion of such matters, the commissary committee's efforts must be regarded as a little feature in itself. The men, however, are modest to the point of touchiness on this score, and any further comment except to give a portion of the menu tends to rather embarrass them. The chief stunt here was put on by the "sandwich follies"—Carl J. Coburn, J. C. Williamson, Asa T. Weeks, Prof. S. Rogers, James McCormick, A. Davis, A. Enos, John Clemens and E. Williman.

Mrs. A. Enos—formerly Mrs. Cushing and before that Miss Fannie McCormick—and the telephone company are celebrating a little anniversary of their own, the 25th year of the telephone service in Pescadero. Twenty-five years ago the service was installed in the postoffice building by Mr. Sprot of San Jose. John McCormick, who was the postmaster at that time, turned the management over to his daughter, Fannie McCormick, who, without interruption, has been in charge ever since. Work on a new office for Mrs. Enos will be under way shortly.

The recent storm that hit the coast was welcomed with cocked shotguns. It brought the ducks in and the hunters out, and the latter have been banging away about the lagoon quite consistently since the opening day. Bernard Cabral, Arthur McCormick, Clarence Frey and Henry McCormick, two of them high school boys, all brought in nice bags of spoonbill and sprig.

Cleaning Without Odor by the F. Thomas Process

Our many years of experience has taught us that it is impossible to do perfect cleaning with cheap, inferior methods. That is why we found it necessary to invest nearly $500,000 in the equipment of a plant and the establishment of an expert organization to do the quality of work demanded by our customers.

With the "F. Thomas Process" we not only remove every particle of dust but we return your garments without that usual disagreeable smell of gasoline. Every drop of gasoline we use in cleaning is redistilled and very highly refined.

Raw gasoline—the kind that you buy for your automobile—is full of heavy oils and unfit for cleaning fabrics. It is little better than ordinary distillate and leaves a sickening "gasoline" smell in your clothes.

Our equipment to redistill and purify our cleaning fluids alone represents a bigger investment than many cleaners have in their entire plant. That is why our work has no

Fill with "RED CROWN" and nothing else

Motorists who follow this rule in their gasoline buying find that they not only save money—because "Red Crown" yields more per gallon mileage—but improve the power and stamina of the motor.

"Red Crown" enables your car to develop the maximum of power that its makers built into it. It vaporizes rapidly and uniformly in the carburetor, and is consumed completely in the cylinders. Uniform wherever and whenever you buy it—hence you don't have to bother with carburetor adjustments.

Fill at the Red Crown sign—at Service Stations, garages, and other dealers.

The pool of water in front of the dwellings to the rear of the Southern Pacific station every winter, which has been an eyesore for a number of years, will be eliminated this winter. The Southern Pacific Company has agreed to put in drain pipes and macadamize that portion of the street. The people of Menlo Park feel grateful to the company for the contemplated improvement.

"Tony," a pet monkey belonging to Mrs. Draycott, suddenly became vicious one day last week, broke his chain, leaped through an open window in the Thomas Reynolds residence and attacked Betty Reynolds, 3 years old. The little girl was severely bitten and scratched before Mrs. Reynolds was able to frighten the beast out of the house. Betty knew "Tony" well and had become quite attached to him. He had always seemed quite harmless and his sudden change of temper cannot be accounted for by his owner.

A $10,000 bond issue of the sanitary district was sold Tuesday night to the Union Trust Company of San Francisco on a bid of -1,010 plus accrued interest. A lower bid was submitted by the Mercantile Fidelity Company of San Francisco, the only other bidder. The bonds will draw interest at 4½ per cent over a period of 15 years. The bids were opened at the home of Supervisor John MacBain by Perry Eyre, secretary of the newly created sanitary district. Funds from the sale of the bonds will be used for supplying additional sanitary arrangements for the Menlo Park district.

Menlo Park has two candidates for office—Judge Charles Shurtleff, who is a candidate for associate justice of the supreme court, and Frank Roach for sheriff. Both secured a splendid vote at the primary election. Let the vote be greater at he November election.

Miss Frances Heightman, the pretty young daughter of Henry Heightman, was the guest of honor at a farewell party Friday night given by Menlo Parlor, N. D. G. W. She left the following day for her new home in Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund Stern, who recently returned from the east, are occupying their home at Atherton.

Probability that the government will enlarge the present building operations at the United States Veterans' Hospital here to the extent of an addlional $1,250,000 was expressed yesterday by Col. R. H. Stanley, medical officer in charge. Col. Stanley told the Times-Gazette that he had received no official information that the additional appropriation had been made, but that it has been the government's plan for some time to make the hospital here eventually of 1,000-bed capacity. The buildings now being erected provide for 500 beds. This construction undertaking involves an appropriation of $1,400,000 made some time ago.

They may become permanent residents of Menlo Park. Miss Geraldine Mulcahy is to take a special course at the state normal school at San Jose, to which place she will motor every morning. The young lady is an athlete as well as an enthusiastic golf player. The Mulcahys are friends of Mr. and Mrs. David Buckley, residing on Glenwood avenue.

H. S. Bonestell, connected with the wholesale paper house of Bonestell & Co., San Francisco, has rented the Atherton Macondray home at Atherton. He has been stopping for some time at a hotel in Redwood City. He is a brother of Cutler Bonestell, who maintains a beautiful home in the foothills back of Atherton.

Mrs. G. Bowles has returned to her home after spending a month with friends in Susanville, Lassen county.

Two concerns of large magnitude are to start business beyond San Francisquito cotage on the highway as soon as spur tracks are constructed and other facilities secured. One is the National Ice Company that is to establish a large ice plant, and the other is a building material supl yconcern tha is o employ 50 men. Boh concerns are making many improvements and expending large sums of money, all of which will benefit the local trades people.

J. H. O'Keefe and wife left Tuesday for Los Angeles to spend a month in sightseeing in the beautiful metropolis of the southland.

A baby girl was born in San Francisco on Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, formerly Margaret Walsh, Grandpa Martin Walsh has so many grandchildren that he finds some difficulty in accounting for all of them.

The annual masquerade ball to be given this evening in Native Sons' Hall will attract a large crowd from all parts of the peninsula. The best of music has been engaged and all will be as merry as a marirage bell this evening. The costumes will be rare and novel. Come and join with the merry throng.

Woodside Chirps

The sudden shower of Sunday night caused some of the Woodside residents to show their speed in salvaging the prunes spread out upon the drying trays. In some orchards precautions had been taken against the possibility of rain, but in other orchards there had been a tendency to wait ustil the last moment, with the result that when he rain did begin here wa sa great scurrying to get the prunes stacked and covered. The task was accomplished, however, so that the loss from soaking will be negligible.

This week has seen the departure of a number of Woodside's summer residents. Daniel C. Jackling and family have left for New York for a short stay, but their house will be kept open for the reception of themselves and their guests over week ends dtrinb the winter months.

Mortimer Fleishhacker and family have returned to their home in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey French and James O'Donnell have moved back to the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McArthur have left their summer cabin here for their home in Palo Alto.

Dr. Kruse and family will be leaving for Oakland the first of the coming week.

Those of us who live here permanently feel sorry for those who know this valley only during the summer months, for the sight of the hillsides with their charming autumn colors as the maple leaves turn from yellow to red, the sight of the winter storms sweeping down the canyons and leaving their fringes of snow along the summit of the ridge and the sight of the bright, new, green of the springtime leaves and the smoky haze of the blossoming mountain lilac hold a greater charm than can be found here in the summer time.

Mrs. J. L. Ross, Jr., who has been ill for some time, has gone on a visit of recuperation to her sister, Mrs. Frank Nash of San Mateo.

Rev. and Mrs. St. John have left to attend the annual church conference at Asilomar. In consequence there will be no church services on Sunday, although the Sunday school will meet as usual.

Registration of children of school age is proceeding rapidly at the Woodside school. On Friday the school closes for the fall vacation and will reopen on October 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brewer of San Francisco visited Mrs. J. C. Flynn on Sunday last.

FRANK ROACH

There are several things that the people of San Mateo county should know about Frank Roach, candidate for sheriff. At the age of 18 Mr. Roach lost his father and mother and was left the sole support of six small brothers and sisters. To the credit of this boy of 19 he raised and educated this family to respected manhood and womanhood. If he had no other qualification, this act alone proves the character of the man.

At the present time Mr Roach is in the nursery business in Menlo Park. His family consists of a wife and five children. His previous occupation was horseshoer and blacksmith.

Suppot Mr. Roach for sheriff and the sheriff's office will be conducted in the same honest and efficient manner in which Mr. Roach has managed his private affairs.

DON'T FORGET

Today is the last day you can register for the coming election. In order that you may have as much a chance as possible the county clerk's office will be open till 9 p. m.

The biggest liars, like the biggest fish, usually get away.

San Carlos Items

Uncle Tom Bellamy, the head janitor at the postoffice and all around utility man for the city, has returned friends and relatives in Oakland.

C. J. Engle, a San Francisco druggist, accompanied by his wife, was here for the week end as a guest at the Drake home.

We are always glad when the duck season rolls around, for the good it does Redwood's famous sportsman, Guy Hull, and the good it does Guy's friends to have him hand them a few upon his return.

Mrs. W. A. Russell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Urch, have moved from Vallejo to San Carlos and are occupyng the Miss Beatrice Juneau bungalow at the corner of Chestnut and Cherry.

After several weeks' visit with friends and relatives in and around St. Louis and seeing the sights up and down the old Mississippi, the father of waters, Mrs. R. J. Shields has returned home very much refreshed and has resumed her position wit hthe Southern Pacific.

Jere J. Johnson left this morning for a two weeks' visit at the home of his son, Philo S. Johnson, the popular Southern Pacific agent at Napa.

Since the final transfer of the San Carlos Emporium from Charles P. Kern, the pioneer merchant, to the Mercantile Trust Company of San Francisco, Mrs. W. H. Mallory of this place has been engaged as manager of the business and she will take charge immediately.

Miss Josephine Stanley, who is a student at the Stanford Lane Hospital in San Francisco, was a week end guez of hc raunt, Mrs. R. O Cook, on Magnolia avenue.

William Stilloff, who has been the head gardened at the Dr. Wiel place in the White Oaks tract for the past two or three years, has moved to his ranch near Stockton which he recently purchased.

B. H. de Frece of San Francisco has moved into his new bungalow at the corner of Cypress and Chestnut.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivers R. Daines, who have been guests at Babylon for the past six months, left last Monday for an auto trip to Portland and Seattle. They expect to be absent for two or three weeks.

Mrs. E. E. Urch left last Thursday for a visit with her daughter in Vallejo.

When our popular traffic cop, now of the state vehicular department, stole away and marfied one of our charming young ladies, the balance of the young ladies of seasonable age were bemoaning the fact that Miss Lindberg had gobbled up and taken to herself the only male eligible in San Carlos, excepting a few widowers and bachelors, and that they would have to look away from their home precinct for a proper and fitting mate. These spirghtly and knowing young ladies appear to have overlooked, from among our new residents, one who should be considered a very highly prized eligible in the person of Frank L. Smith, who has been making his home with his sister, Mrs. C. H. Durel, at the corner of Holly and Elm for the past six months while he is a student at Stanford. Only wait patiently, girls, until young Smith completes his college education, when he will take time to look for a cozy corner for himself and just one of you.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Buneman closed their bungalow on Elm street last Tuesday and boarded the "daylight limited" for Los Angeles. The Bunemans expect to be absent for six weeks or two months while Mr. Buneman is looking after his work as deputy insurance commissioner in that section of the state.

During the past four weeks, when not looking after wire trouble on his district between San Francisco and San Jose, Otto Papst, S. P. lineman, has been trimming the gum trees whihc overhang the telegraph and telephone wires between the railroad and the old county road. The new growth from these old, unsightly stumps which grow out each year sufficient to touch and ground the telephone and telegraph wires are a source of great trouble and a big expense to both the railroad and telegraph companies, as well as causing inconvenience to the subscribers of the telephone company and delay to messages for patrons of the telegraph company when the limbs sag down onto and ground the wires, particularly in heavy, wet weather. As these unsightly old stumps, the way they have to be trimmed back in order to clear the wires, are an eyesore instead of an ornament to the community, the board of supervisors should be appealed to to arrange for their removal. The value of the wood would defray the expense of removal.

T. Rogers, practical road builder from San Francisco, has been employed by the Mercantile Trust Company to oversee the sidewalk and street construction work in conjunction with County Surveyor G. A. Kneese. Mr. Rogers is commuting between San Carlos and his home in San Francisco.

Mrs. Ford is the daughter of Carl Philip, the broker and mining promoter of San Francisco, who moved into the E. E. Jones place at 512 Walnut street some months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cummings of Wymore, Neb., arrived last week for an extended trip along the Pacific coast and through the western and Rocky Mountain states. They are here for a fortnight's visit at the home of their son, L. J. Cummings, before proceeding on their way to the southern part of the state. The postmaster enjoyed a long visit with Mr. Cummings, as he came from among a nest of Cowgills, who are honest farmers in the good old corn country.

Runnymede Items

There was an attendance of between 30 and 40 at the Woman's home of Mrs. Charles Self in Palo Alto Wednesday afternoon. The response to roil call with a California flower indicated the rose as the most popular with the memmership present. It was not possible to get definite information as to when the new auditorium would be completed, but it was decided to entertain the people of Runnymede with an open house some evening as soon as it could be ready for meetings and a committee consisting of Mesdames H. S. Wolmerton, W. Gurr, J. H. Stubbe and R. G. White was appointed to have charge of the arrangements for that evening. It was also decided to make an effort to have the gas company extend its mains to Runnymede.

There was a splendid program on California resources. Mrs. H. Crosby, Mrs. S. W. Huil and Mrs. Lena Follett assisting the chairman, Mrs. J. A. Cameron, with papers on the different resources.

Mrs. William Gurr gave three piano selections from a California composer.

Helen Crowther of Runnymede and Mrs. H. E. Wagner of Palo Alto added much to the program with vocal numbers.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Nickerson and Mrs. L. Follett motored to Sunnyvale Thursday evening for the instituting of the Rebekah lodge at that place.

OWNER OF KING'S MOUNTAIN RANCH IN SUIT

In a complaint in forcible detainer filed in the superior court Monday, Albert E. Kern, who is the owner of a ranch on the King's Mountain road containing 37.69 acres, alleges that Gertrude B. Allen unlawfully entered upon his property during his absence on June 6, 1922, and has ever since refused to surrender possession. Kern asks that possession of the property he restored to him and that he be awarded damages of $1,000 per month for the time occupied, trebled.

The winners of the two trips ton Honolulu will sail on the steamship Sonoma or steamship Ventura, depending upon the time they select to start. The steamships Sonoma and Ventura of the Oceanic Steamship Company are 10,000 tons displacement, twin screw, steel vessels, double botoms, watertight compartments, two sets of triple expansion engines, developing over 8,000 horsepower and capable of steaming over 17 knots an hour. The time of passage, San Francisco to Honolulu, is five and a half days. Steamers usually arrive at Honolulu in early morning.

During the trip there are gorgeous sunsets, all spashes of man ycolors; sunrises, too; days when the great expanse of ocean seems one gray-green meadow stretching on and on into the infinite beyond—farther than any eye cah see; nights when the phosphorous lights play on the blue-balck waves and the stars twinkle as the stars have twinkled for countless ages—all of this, and more.

THE GRAND CANYON OF ARIZONA

One comes upon it suddenly, only a short distance from the railroad terminus—a titanic gash in the earths crust, an unexpected step-off in the wooded mesa country.

Imagine a stupendous chasm, in places 10 to 13 miles wide from rim to rim, more than 200 miles long in the total of its meanderings and more than a mile deep. A mighty river, the Colorado, has chiseled out the inner granite gorge, which is flanked on each side by tier upon tier of huge architectural forms—veritable mountains—carved by erosion from the solid rock strata which lie exposed in great layers to the desert sun. And all painted in colors of the rainbow.

That's the Grand Canyon.

Other scenic wonders are viewed either on the level or looking up. The Grand Canyon, from teh rim, is looked down upon. The sensation is novel—absolutely unique, in fact. Not every visitor can at once adjust untrained eyes to this sudden shift from the usual outlook. Gradually one must become accustomed to the change from the ordinary range of vision. It is like seeing a strange landscape fro ma lowying aeroplane. Descend by trail and, one after another, the canyon forms see mto creep upward until they soon take their places in familiar fashion along the horizon. Not until then do they assume a natural aspect.

SUNNY SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

More than a century ago man began shaping Southern California, with its wealth of romance, owers, furits and sunshine, to suit his ideals. Those heroic monuments to the state's earliest civilization, the missions, founded in the eighteenth century, still stand in melancholy grandeur, surrounded by the luscious grapes, tall eucalyptus, drooping peppers and fragrant orange trees. Modern Southern California will present the same lure to the winners of the two trips that it did to the mission founders. The turquoise skies, perennial flowers, softly tempered climate, are reinforced by man-planted palms and orange groves, man-builded railroads an dhighways, skyscrapers, homes, churches, schools, orchards, parks, gardens, golf courses, polo fields, tennis courts, airship fleets, museums, theaters, bridle paths, race courses, moving picture studios, hotels—everythin gthe oldest cities have and all that the newest municipalities crave.

World travelers have said that the strongest attraction of Southern California is its magnet as a vacation land, because there is no human being to whom there is not some powerful appeal in its varied offerings. You may be one of the two fortunate winners of a trip to this land of beauty.

A $100 BLUE BIRD PLAYER

The sixth prize will be a $100 mahogany phonograph, with universal tone arm, making it possible to play all records, a two spring motor, wood tone chamber, a beautiful case with four record shelves and a tone which is all that can be desired. This is sold by Hanson's Music Company, 137 Powell Street, San Francisco.

The six months' course in Heald's Business College in San Francisco may be the means of changing the course of the whole life of the winner o fthis prize, and for the better, as has been done in many instances where the aspirant has the courage to go out and win this prize. This is the seventh prize.

Owing to the illness of some of the club members the campaign has been extended to October 25, just five days longer. This is positively the only extension that will be made under any circumstances.
